February 7, 2011 Rob, one of the tech here is what I would call a die-hard commuter; rain or shine he goes to work almost every day of the year. If you were to pass Rob while driving to work you couldn't help but notice him because he's covered in lights, just like a very bright holiday stretch all the collapse all over to. A. There are so many variations on bike design that it is very difficult to evaluate and recommend a product that will fit your bike by email. Your best resource is your local Axiom dealer who will be able to help you choose the right rack, bags or accessories for your bike and your needs. And they can help you install your new gear properly. There were no instructions included with my product, could you send me a copy? A. For all our products, we recommend a dealership. Because there may be some minor changes needed in order for the outfit to fit some bikes it is important that the product is installed by a professional. If you still want to do it yourself, you can download the instructions on the Guide page under the Solve a Problem tab or by following this link. I bought your gear and it lacked the equipment to install it properly, can you send me parts I lack? A. To get the equipment you need to talk to the dealer you purchased your product from, they can replace your product or offer you the right equipment to install a new product. Where can I find spare parts for Axiom products? A. We design all of our gear with interchangeable parts where possible, because we believe that the greenest product is one you never throw away. For spare parts, you can see the local Axiom dealer you purchased your product from. If they don't stock the part they can order it through their store or distributor. I have a warranty problem, what do I do? A. If ever you have a warranty problem with one of our products: Take the product to your local Axiom dealer you purchased your product from. They will evaluate your claim and help you repair or replace any Axiom product that is considered defective. For more information, please visit our Guarantee page or your local Axiom dealer. Where can I buy an Axiom product? A. That's a good question. We have a dedicated network of dealers and distributors who help us get the product for you. To find a dealer or distributor in your area, go to our Find a Dealer/Distributor page. If you can't find one in your area it's because we're not currently alone, rest assured we're working on changing that. Do you have any stickers or posters you can send me? A. Unfortunately, we don't have any stickers or posters for People. How does the Posi-Lock system work? A. You can download the pdf guide for the Posi-Lock system by clicking here, or by visiting our guide page under the Solve the Problem tab. I'm a dealer and I need to find a replacement part, what do I do? A. If you are in Canada, please consult Canadian distributor Live to Play Sports. If you are in the U.S. or abroad, please consult with your distributor. If they don't have what you are looking for in stock they can order it. I'm interested in distributing your product, you don't have an Axiom distributor in my field, what's the next step? A. Great to hear that you want to distribute Axiom products. Please visit our section to contact us and send your request through there. It will go to our distribution manager who will be in contact with you soon. I couldn't find a dealer near me where can I buy Axiom gear online? A. We are pleased that you are considering purchasing Axiom products. Unfortunately, we do not sell our products online, for two reasons. First, for all our gear we recommend the dealer installation to make sure it is installed safely and correctly. Secondly, because we believe that our dealers provide and basic services to our consumers, a service that is lacking with online sales. I've installed my new rack, but it still doesn't seem to fit properly. What should I do? A. Take the bike and rack at the local Axiom dealer you bought it from; They will help you set your stand properly. Which rack is suitable for my bike? A. Thanks for your interest in Axiom products. It is best to go and visit your local Axiom dealer, they will be able to help you find the right pannier for your needs and make sure it will fit your rack and bike. Is it possible to purchase longer stays that come to the Streamliner Road stand separately? A. Unfortunately, we do not sell these longer stays separately. They are specifically designed for streamliner Road and Streamliner Road DLX shelving and are not compatible with other manufacturers' racks or other racks in our lineup. I have a Streamliner Sport Tour stand. Can I get a longer stay on the Streamliner Road for this rack? A. Sport tour mounting legs use different tools than Streamliner Road and Road DLX so the legs are not interchangeable. I bought one of your pumps and the sensor doesn't read the pressure in the tires exactly. How can I fix it? A. First make sure you use the pump correctly, ensuring that the head is firmly pushed all the way down on the valve. If the sensor is still not reading the pressure properly to take it to the dealer you have purchased the pump from so they can properly assess the problem. If they consider it a warranty problem your pump will be replaced. If it's a mini pump, it can probably be repaired by calibrating the included bolt. The sensor on my pump is broken. Is it covered by the warranty? A. This is what the dealer you purchased your pump from should appreciate. If it has a sensor broken as a result of a manufacturer defect it will be replaced. How to close a new waterproof bag? A. The bag uses the traditional dry bag closure. Once you pack the bag roll the top of the bag down Provide two plastic clamps and a Velcro to keep the circuit in place. Then close the top flap. I bought your zR city basket and it won't fit on my rack, what do I do? A. If you're having trouble with the two bottom u-shaped pieces at the bottom of the basket, preventing the basket from installing, the quickest solution is to bend one of the parts at a 45-degree angle. Or you can remove one of the pieces all together. Because not all racks are built in the same way, there may be minor changes required for the basket to fit. Fit.
